

THE GOSPEL OF MATTHEW; YOUR KINGDOM COME...ON EARTH

Week 9 – “Blessed is he who is not offended in Me”

March 22, 2022

WHY are we here together in this class? What do we desire to learn?

The Blind SEE

Matt. 9:27 - When Jesus departed from there (from the home of Jarius), two blind men followed Him (WHY?), crying out and saying, ‘Son of David, have mercy on us!’ It appears that Jesus did NOT heal them immediately. WHY? What was occurring?

It was not easy for these blind men to follow Jesus, but they did. They were determined to follow Him. WHAT pushed them forward? WHY did they persevere?

“Son of David” they called out! “Son of David” was a messianic title. WHY is “Son of David” considered Messianic? The Messiah was promised to come through King David’s lineage. These physically blind men recognized that Jesus was the Messiah!!

The two blind men were asking for mercy – loving kindness.

Matt. 9:28a - And when He (Jesus) had come into the house, the blind men came to Him. The blind men followed Jesus into His house!! They were DESPERATE!

Matt. 9:28b - And Jesus said to them, ‘Do you believe (to be persuaded of; to place confidence in) that I am able to do this?’

I am – WHAT is Jesus stating?

Jesus is I am. Jesus is GOD! God told Moses from the burning bush, This is my name forever; and thus I am to be remembered throughout all generations. (Exodus 3:15)

Do you believe I am able to do this? Jesus demanded faith in WHO HE IS and His ability to rescue, deliver, redeem, to transform lives!

They said to Him, ‘Yes, Lord.’ “Truly; assuredly”; “Lord” – Master, Owner, Sovereign!

These men placed confidence in Jesus as Messiah/as God (Psa. 2) and in His work.

Jesus answered their crying out to Him.

Matt. 9:29-30a - Then He touched their eyes, saying, “According to your faith let it be to you.” <sup>30</sup> And their eyes were opened.

Jesus knew their hearts – Jesus knew they were truly crying out to HIM, the MESSIAH – by FAITH. And, Jesus removed their blindness.

Matt. 9:29-30b - And Jesus sternly warned (to charge with earnest admonition; directly; charging them with an obligation)...Jesus sternly warned them, saying, "See that no one knows it." Did the healed blind men comply? NO!

Matt. 9:31 - But when they had departed, they spread the news about Him (made Him known) in all that country (land).

Was it the excitement regarding Jesus and His words and works/miracles that drove others to tell the blind men? They heard and sought Him, experienced His power of healing and they were driven to tell others. What about us?

WHY did Jesus tell the two men, See that no one knows it (the healing)? Perhaps rejection of Jesus was increasing!

CONSIDER: this miracle is not only a revelation of the person of the Messiah (Isa. 35:5-6) but also indicates what Messiah came to do for Israel. The Jews were spiritually blind and did not know God. Messiah came to reveal God to them. John 1:18 - No one has seen God at any time. The only begotten Son, who is in the bosom of the Father, He has declared Him.

In the bosom of the Father refers to the truth of His/Jesus's deity. Jesus is the full revelation of all Who God is. Jesus, God the Son, possesses the nature of God.

"It was never seen like this in Israel!"

Matt. 9:32-33a - As they (the formerly blind, NOW SEEING men??) went out, behold, they brought to Him a man, mute and demon-possessed. <sup>33</sup> And when the demon was cast out, the mute spoke.

Exorcising a demon from a mute person was considered a Messianic miracle. The rabbis of that day thought that the first step in exorcising a demon from its host was to speak with them. If a person was mute – there would be no communication.

Matt. 9:33b - And the multitudes marveled, saying, 'It was never seen like this in Israel!' Of course, they hadn't. This was a Messianic miracle! The Messiah had recently announced Himself to Israel! This miracle proclaimed not only the complete authority of Jesus over the demonic realm, but also the weakness of the rabbis' traditions.

Rejection of Jesus Increases

Matt. 9:34 - But the Pharisees said, 'He casts out demons by the ruler of the demons.' In attributing this work of Jesus to the power of Satan (!?!?!), we see that the Pharisees and other religious leaders blatantly continuing their rejection of Jesus and His work.

The Offering of the Kingdom is Extended

Matt. 9:35 - Then Jesus went about all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues, preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing every sickness and every disease among the people.

Matt. 9:36 - But when He saw the multitudes, He was moved with compassion for them, because they were weary (harassed) and scattered, like sheep having no shepherd.

OBSERVATIONS:

But (a change is noted by this word) then when He saw the multitudes, He was moved with compassion – this is the strongest word for pity in the Greek language. It describes the compassion which moves a person to the deepest depths of his being. It means to be moved as to one's bowels as the bowels were thought to be the seat of love and pity!

...they were weary (harassed; fainting) and scattered (downcast; thrown down; utterly helpless; forsaken)

...like sheep having no shepherd

In Phillip Keller's book, A Shepherd Looks at Psalm 23, Keller describes how sheep can get turned over on their backs and not be able to get up by themselves! Such sheep are called "cast" or "cast down" sheep. These sheep flail at the air with their legs.

But they can't get back on their feet without the aid of the shepherd. Sheep left in this condition, helpless and vulnerable to their enemies, will die after a few hours or days.

Unfaithful Shepherds

In the 597 BC timeframe, what did God tell the prophet Ezekiel declare to the religious leadership, the scribes and Pharisees?

Eze. 34:2-5 – ...Son of man, prophesy against the shepherds of Israel, prophesy and say to them, 'Thus says the Lord GOD to the shepherds: Woe to the shepherds of Israel who feed themselves! Should not the shepherds feed the flocks? <sup>3</sup> You eat the fat and clothe yourselves with the wool; you slaughter the fatlings, but you do not feed the flock. <sup>4</sup> The weak you have not strengthened, nor have you healed those who were sick, nor bound up the broken, nor brought back what was driven away, nor sought what was lost; but with force and cruelty you have ruled them. <sup>5</sup> So they were scattered because there was no shepherd;

Jesus' Response

Matt. 9:37-38 – Upon being moved with the deepest compassion, Jesus said to His disciples, The harvest truly is plentiful, but the laborers are few. <sup>38</sup> Therefore pray the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into His harvest.

Jesus saw the greatness of human need as an opportunity, as a harvest that is plentiful. But it was a harvest that needed laborers. And so Jesus told the disciples and us to pray that God will send out laborers into His harvest.

The Greek word for “send out” speaks of God PUSHING FORWARD – THRUSTING THEM OUT.

Commissioning the Disciples

In view of the need, Jesus called His twelve disciples (students/learners), His twelve apostles (sent ones), and conferred upon them the same messianic authority that He Himself had been demonstrating. HOW SO? The Holy Spirit came upon prophets, priests, and kings in Israel’s history prior to the Church to empower them! I’m suggesting that God the Holy Spirit gave the disciples the power!

Instructions

Matt. 10:1, 5-8 - And when He had called His twelve disciples to Him, He gave them power over unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to heal all kinds of sickness and all kinds of disease...<sup>5</sup> These twelve Jesus sent out and commanded them, saying: ‘Do not go into the way of the Gentiles, and do not enter a city of the Samaritans. <sup>6</sup> But go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel. <sup>7</sup> And as you go, preach, saying, ‘The kingdom of heaven is at hand.’ <sup>8</sup> Heal the sick, cleanse the lepers, raise the dead, cast out demons. Freely you have received, freely give.

Restrictions

Before Jesus dismissed the disciples/apostles, He told them to whom they were to minister. Their ministry was to be exclusively to the lost sheep of Israel. WHY were those within the nation of Israel called “lost sheep”?

Jer. 50:6 - My people have been lost sheep. Their shepherds have led them astray; they have turned them away on the mountains. They have gone from mountain to hill;

Do you think the twelve were sent out to extend the ministry which Jesus had been carrying on? Could this “sending out” be a foreshadowing of how Jesus’ followers/disciples would be used in the kingdom? Matt. 19:28 – Jesus told the disciples, Assuredly I say to you, that in the regeneration, when the Son of Man sits on the throne of His glory, you who have followed Me will also sit on twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel.

Believers in the Kingdom of God/the Millennial Kingdom will rule and reign with Jesus (II Tim. 2:12). We've been told that we will judge the world including angels (I Cor. 6:2-3).

WHY did Jesus tell the disciples NOT to go into the way of the Gentiles and not to enter a city of the Samaritans? The preaching the disciples were to engage in was POINTED, "The kingdom of heaven is at hand." This was a message for the nation of Israel based on God's promises to them..

Israel was the nation with which God had entered into a covenant through Abraham... which was repeated throughout the Hebrew Scriptures.

II Sam. 7:23-24 - <sup>23</sup> And who is like Your people, like Israel, the one nation on the earth whom God went to redeem for Himself as a people, to make for Himself a name—and to do for Yourself great and awesome deeds for Your land—before Your people whom You redeemed for Yourself from Egypt, the nations, and their gods? <sup>24</sup> For You have made Your people Israel Your very own people forever; and You, LORD, have become their God.

The nation of Israel needed to come to faith. The disciples were to announce to the nation of Israel that their King had arrived.

Matt. 10: 9-10 - Provide neither gold nor silver nor copper in your money belts, <sup>10</sup> nor bag for your journey, nor two tunics, nor sandals, nor staffs; for a worker is worthy of his food. They were to believe all their support would come from the One Who had sent them. They were not to provide for the journey. They were not to take money or extra clothing to provide for their needs. Instead, they were to be supported by those who heard their words and were persuaded by the miracles that they were men from God.

Alfred Edersheim wrote that Rabbinic literature taught that the Jewish people should not take a staff, shoes, nor money-purse/money girdle into the Temple precincts/ area...to avoid even the appearance of being engaged on other business. The whole being should be absorbed in the service of the Lord.

Worthy Households

Matt. 10:11-14 - Now whatever city or town you enter, inquire who in it is worthy, and stay there till you go out. <sup>12</sup> And when you go into a household, greet it. <sup>13</sup> If the household is worthy, let your peace come upon it (the household would be blessed). But if it is not worthy, let your peace return to you. (don't extend blessing to them) <sup>14</sup> And whoever will not receive you nor hear your words, when you depart from that house or city, shake off the dust from your feet.

When they entered a village, they were to seek out one who had a good reputation and request hospitality. Once they found a suitable home, they were to stay there even though another might offer them greater convenience or comfort. If they came to a village and no hospitality was extended, they were to move on to another village.

...shake the dust from your feet – in Neh. 5:13 – (the Governor over Israel when they returned to the land following exile in Babylon) Nehemiah called down God's wrath upon anyone who would not follow through with their commitment.

Shaking the dust from your feet indicated an expression of disdain.

Judgment

Matt. 10:15 - Assuredly, I say to you, it will be more tolerable for the land of Sodom and Gomorrah in the day of judgment than for that city! Sodom and Gomorrah were judged without warning and with severity! Jesus told the disciples that the people's lack of hospitality would show their indifference to, or rejection of, the message that the disciples declared re: the significance of the Kingdom of God!

Persecution

Matt. 10:16 - Behold, I send you out as sheep in the midst of wolves. Jesus prepared the disciples for persecution! Persecution will come!

Matt. 10:17-23 - speak to the future – going beyond the disciples' mission at this time. (Compare to Matt. 24:9ff)

Matt. 10:22 - And you will be hated by all for My name's sake. But he who endures to the end will be saved (endured to the end – tribulation verbiage – Matt. 24:13 – physically endured).

Matt. 10:23 - When they persecute you in this city, flee to another. For assuredly, I say to you, you will not have gone through the cities of Israel before the Son of Man comes.

Jesus is speaking to the Jewish disciples who are going to the nation of Israel. Because this is speaking of the future, this seems to anticipate the physical Second Coming of Jesus.

And, we know from the OT that the prophecies concerning end times concern Israel and those prophecies speak of the tribulation and the physical Second Coming and the establishment of the Kingdom of God. There are no Scriptures regarding the rapture of the CHURCH in the OT!

Matt. 24:29-31 – (Olivet Discourse – speaking to the Jewish disciples) Immediately after the tribulation of those days the sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give its light;

the stars will fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens will be shaken. <sup>30</sup> Then the sign of the Son of Man will appear in heaven, and then all the tribes of the earth will mourn, and they will see the Son of Man coming on the clouds of heaven with power and great glory. <sup>31</sup> And He will send His angels with a great sound of a trumpet, and they will gather together His elect from the four winds, from one end of heaven to the other.

BLESSING!

Following the tribulation and the return of Jesus – judgment will fall (Armageddon, Matt. 25 [10 virgins])

Matt. 24:37-41 - But as the days of Noah were, so also will the coming of the Son of Man be. <sup>38</sup> For as in the days before the flood, they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, (life going on; routine; mundane; SINFUL) until the day that Noah entered the ark, <sup>39</sup> and did not know until the flood (JUDGMENT) came and took them all away (ALL came under God's judgment in the flood except the 8 in Noah's family), so also will the coming of the Son of Man be. <sup>40</sup> Then two men will be in the field: one will be taken (in judgment) and the other left (as Noah and his family were left). <sup>41</sup> Two women will be grinding at the mill: one will be taken (in judgment) and the other left (as Noah and his family were left). JUDGMENT!

I Thess. 5:2-11 – the day of the Lord/judgment will come as a thief in the night... (Christians are in a separate category) For when they say, "Peace and safety!" then sudden destruction comes upon them, as labor pains upon a pregnant woman. And they shall not escape. <sup>4</sup> But you, brethren, are not in darkness, so that this Day should overtake you as a thief. <sup>5</sup> You are all sons of light and sons of the day. We are not of the night nor of darkness. <sup>6</sup> Therefore let us not sleep, as others do, but let us watch and be sober. <sup>7</sup> For those who sleep, sleep at night, and those who get drunk are drunk at night. <sup>8</sup> But let us who are of the day be sober, putting on the breastplate of faith and love, and as a helmet the hope of salvation. <sup>9</sup> For God did not appoint us to wrath, but to obtain salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ, <sup>10</sup> who died for us, that whether we wake or sleep, we should live together with Him. <sup>11</sup> Therefore comfort each other and edify one another, just as you also are doing.

John the Immerser

Matt. 11:1-3 - Now it came to pass, when Jesus finished commanding His twelve disciples, that He departed from there to teach and to preach in their cities (in Galilee). And when John had heard in prison about the works of Christ, he sent two of his disciples <sup>3</sup> and said to Him, 'Are You the Coming One or do we look for another?'

John had been imprisoned in the home of Herod, because he blasted Herod for his immorality. Herod was living in adultery with his brother Philip's wife, Herodias.

John preached that Jesus would be “the Lamb of God, Who takes away the sin of the world (Jn. 1:29) and that He would judge sin...that Jesus would baptize with the Holy Spirit and with fire (He would purge/judge), and that He would “gather His wheat into the barns but would burn the chaff. But John was in prison. God hadn’t rescued him. Instead of God triumphing, Herod remained in power!! John needed reassurance. The Messianic prophecies in the Hebrew Scriptures taught that the Messiah would come as a suffering servant, would die, and then return as a glorious King.

John wondered if he should look for another to bring the judgment of God upon a wicked world and fulfill the prophecies of the glorious reign of the Messiah.

What is the answer to that question? The time of God’s judgment has not yet come...but the final triumph is CERTAIN!

John was in prison and reports were coming to him re: the works of Jesus which were acts of mercy rather than acts of divine judgment.

Matt 11:4-6 - Jesus answered and said to them, Go and tell John the things which you hear and see: <sup>5</sup> The blind see and the lame walk; the lepers are cleansed and the deaf hear; the dead are raised up and the poor have the gospel preached to them. <sup>6</sup> And blessed is he who is not offended because of Me.

How was this an answer to John’s question about His, Jesus’, Messiahship?.

...JOHN – you know the Scriptures. Isaiah the prophet told our brethren, the Jewish people, that when the Messiah comes He will heal the blind and the lame and cleanse the lepers, and the deaf will hear and the dead will be raised up. And the poor/the spiritually bankrupt will hear the good news of forgiveness of sin.

...JOHN – those who are not OFFENDED (who do not stumble, who do not distrust, who are not displeased/indignant [resentful] because of Me – are BLESSED. God’s divine favor is showered upon them.

Jesus tells us of the unique role of John as the herald of the Messiah which was prophesied in Isaiah and Malachi.

John had been fearless – which led to him imprisonment.

Those who had gone into the wilderness to hear John’s message and to be immersed by him, did NOT venture out because John was a weak reed – shaken by every wind. Instead they found a man who THUNDERED DEMANDS for repentance!

They did not find a man clothed in soft garments. He wore camel's hair garments and ate locusts and wild honey.

Was John a prophet? YES! Among the prophets before Jesus, there were none greater than John. Because John prepared the way for the Messiah, he was declared to be greater than the prophets who had prophesied before Jesus. Those who will live in the Millennial Kingdom will be greater as they will live knowing the complete fulfillment of Messianic prophecy.

Matt. 11:12-13 - And from the days of John the Baptist until now the kingdom of heaven suffers violence, and the violent take it by force. <sup>13</sup> For all the prophets and the law prophesied until John.

The kingdom can never be subdued (crushed) or opposed (rebelled against) by human violence. This verse may be understood in this way, "The kingdom presses ahead relentlessly (w/out letting up, pausing, or giving up; being persistent) and only the relentless (the persistent) will press into/enter it."

Jesus' closing statement regarding John...

Matt. 11:14-15 - And if you are willing to receive it, he is Elijah who is to come. <sup>15</sup> He who has ears to hear, let him hear!

The prophet Malachi, in Mal. 4:5-6 declared that Elijah the prophet would come before the day of the Lord – before judgment. If Israel, as a nation, had received Jesus as the Messiah, the King, John would then be the fulfillment of Elijah.

If Israel, as a nation, had received Jesus as the Messiah, there would not be judgment. I am suggesting that Elijah will be one of the two witnesses during the tribulation.

We KNOW that Jesus had to die as the suffering servant – never having been accepted by Israel as the Messiah/King.

Israel as a nation was NOT WILLING TO RECEIVE THEIR MESSIAH!

The Jews were aware that Elijah had not died. John already told the Jewish religious leadership, when they asked him – that he was not Elijah.

Gabriel told Zacharias that John would come in the spirit and power of Elijah.

Matt. 11:16-19 - In contrast to Jesus' commendation of John – for his resolute/determined faith and courage, Jesus spoke of the unbelief of the Jewish leaders in His generation.

Matt.11:20-24 - Then He began to rebuke the cities in which most of His mighty works had been done, because they did not repent: <sup>21</sup> 'Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! (both Chorazin and Bethsaida would fall into ruin) For if the mighty works which were done in you had been done in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes. <sup>22</sup> But I say to you, it will be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon in the day of judgment than for you. (Tyre and Sidon will be judged; the judgment on the cities of Galilee will be more severe). <sup>23</sup> And you, Capernaum, who are exalted to heaven, will be brought down to Hades; for if the mighty works which were done in you had been done in Sodom, it would have remained until this day. <sup>24</sup> But I say to you that it shall be more tolerable for the land of Sodom in the day of judgment than for you.' The ruins of Capernaum today depict the remains of what was once a beautiful city.

Matt. 11:25-30 - At that time Jesus answered and said, 'I thank You, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that You have hidden these things from the wise and prudent and have revealed them to babes. <sup>26</sup> Even so, Father, for so it seemed good in Your sight. <sup>27</sup> All things have been delivered to Me by My Father, and no one knows the Son except the Father. Nor does anyone know the Father except the Son, and the one to whom the Son wills to reveal Him. <sup>28</sup> Come to Me, all you who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. <sup>29</sup> Take My yoke upon you and learn from Me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. <sup>30</sup> For My yoke is easy and My burden is light.' Jesus thanked God the Father for those who believe through childlike faith. They are recipients of revelation from GOD!

God has hidden truth from those who are wise in the knowledge of this world. ...<sup>27</sup> All things have been delivered to Me by My Father, and no one knows the Son except the Father. Nor does anyone know the Father except the Son, and the one to whom the Son wills to reveal Him. No one knows the Son as does the Father, and no one knows the Father in the way that the Son knows Him. BUT only through God's glorious revelation, this truth can be revealed by the Son to sinful man! ALL GLORY be to God!

Turning from words of judgment to supernatural revelation, Jesus extended a personal invitation...

Matt. 11:28-30 - Come to Me, all you who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. <sup>29</sup> Take My yoke upon you and learn from Me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. <sup>30</sup> For My yoke is easy and My burden is light.

GLORY BE TO GOD!

Are we MARVELING? Are we more in love with Jesus?

Are we blessed by God because we're NOT offended in Jesus and His plan for us?

Questions

Regarding the flow of Matthew, what has changed?

How do you see Jesus in these chapters?

What has been new to you in terms of the backdrop and/or Jesus' response?

How is your heart impacted?

Anything new to you?

How do these two chapters impact you – as a whole? Individual passages?
